MEDITATION FOR TODAY

At a moment when “time was running out” for evil Nineveh, God did something extraordinary: he raised up Jonah to preach repentance to “the great city.” When “Jesus came proclaiming the Gospel of God,” Christ’s first action was to call men from the sea to preach to the world. The compassion, the love, the kindness, and the goodness of God shine forth in the witness of these humble believers who leave nets, boats, and father to follow Jesus. When we pray to God, “Teach me your paths,” Jesus responds, “Come after me.”

Magnificat, January 2024

Our Mission Statement

In recognition of God’s love and presence in every human being, the members of Saint Stanislaus Parish embrace the challenge to serve God and all His people. In fellowship with one another, we nurture our Catholic Faith through the celebration of the sacraments and reflection on the word of God. As a welcoming and culturally diverse Faith Community, we strive to proclaim and live the good News of Jesus Christ while providing for the spiritual and physical needs of those less fortunate.

Evangelization

January 21– Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

We are all in the process of conversion throughout our lifetime. "Teach me your ways, O Lord" (Psalm 25) should be our constant prayer as we learn to humble ourselves like the repentant Ninevites in today's first reading. Yet, the Church, after years of proclaiming God's Gospel, is met by hardened hearts those who refuse to repent and believe in the Gospel. "In an individualistic, feel-good culture, it is difficult to hear His message. Still the scope of God's saving mercy is without limits for those willing to receive it."--The Way of Conversion (Give Us This Day- Jan. 2024, p. 220)
