MEDITATION FOR TODAY

“Some Greeks” voice their desire: “We would like to see Jesus.” What they hope to encounter through such an audience is “the joy of salvation.” Jesus becomes “the source of eternal salvation” by his obedient suffering that makes him “perfect.” For only if the grain of wheat dies does it produce fruit; only if one “hates his life in this world” does he “preserve it for eternal life.” The Father will honor anyone who follows Jesus in this self-sacrificing way. He “will make a new covenant,” writing his law upon our hearts. We will be his people.

Magnificat, March 2024

Evangelization

March 17– Fifth Sunday of Lent

We see from our readings today that Our Lord is recognizing his time of complete obedience to the Father for which He has prepared..."But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour."--John 12:30 This 'hour' was God's greatest covenant made for us...I will make a new covenant and remember their sin no more"--Jer.31: 31-34. We, today after two thousand years, are the recipients of this New Covenant; "and when he was made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him."-Heb. 5:9.

Pontifical Good Friday Collection

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land, where they are now less than 2% of the population. Your support is essential to help the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools, and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines of Christianity, including in Jerusalem, Nazareth, and Bethlehem, to name only a few. The pandemic hit Christians in the Holy Land particularly hard. Most of them depend on pilgrimages for work. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land and to maintain a Christian presence where the Church was born. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. PLEASE BE GENEROUS! For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org or www.custodia.org
