MEDITATION FOR TODAY

“The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power.” Cornelius, a Roman soldier, falls at the feet of Peter, not because of Peter’s natural goodness, but because Jesus had chosen and appointed Peter to bear fruit. “The Lord makes his salvation known” through the love borne by the apostles. Cornelius symbolically lays down his life for his friend Peter, who will soon replicate that gesture in martyrdom. “Let us love one another, because love is of God.”

Our Mission Statement

In recognition of God’s love and presence in every human being, the members of Saint Stanislaus Parish embrace the challenge to serve God and all His people. In fellowship with one another, we nurture our Catholic Faith through the celebration of the sacraments and reflection on the word of God. As a welcoming and culturally diverse Faith Community, we strive to proclaim and live the good News of Jesus Christ while providing for the spiritual and physical needs of those less fortunate.

Evangelization

May 5– The Sixth Sunday of Easter

All of today's readings concern love...which is a topic much needed in this world of so many broken promises. Is it any wonder that today's children may grow up with the question-What is love? It kind of goes hand in hand with the question-What is truth? For those of us who have come to KNOW God, we recognize that God IS love. "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friend."-John 15:13. "God loves us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins."-1John 4:10. Now, that's TRUE LOVE!
