READINGS FOR TODAY

First Reading — Dt 4:1-2, 6-8

Psalm — 15:2-5

The one who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.

Second Reading — Jas 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27

Gospel — Mk 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

MEDITATION FOR TODAY

The scribes and the Pharisees disregard God's commandments and cling instead to their own self righteousness and sense of superiority. Since their hearts are far from God, evils like malice, deceit, blasphemy, and arrogance come "from their hearts." But God endows us with "statutes and decrees" in order to rescue us from our own fallen tendencies and to give us a way to "live, enter in, and take possession of the land." By allowing our hearts to be formed by God's commandments, we "give evidence of our wisdom and intelligence to the nations." For such obedience reveals just how close to us is the God who "wills to give us birth by the word of truth." "Humbly welcome the word that is able to save your souls."

Our Mission Statement

In recognition of God's love and presence in every human being, the members of Saint Stanislaus Parish embrace the challenge to serve God and all His people. In fellowship with one another, we nurture our Catholic Faith through the celebration of the sacraments and reflection on the word of God. As a welcoming and culturally diverse Faith Community, we strive to proclaim and live the good News of Jesus Christ while providing for the spiritual and physical needs of those less fortunate.

Prayer for Labor Day

On this weekend, when we rest from our usual labors, loving Father, we pray for all who shoulder the tasks of human labor—in the marketplace, in factories and offices, in the professions, and in family living.

We thank you, Lord, for the gift and opportunity of work; may our efforts always be pure of heart, for the good of others and the glory of your name.

We lift up to you all who long for just employment and those who work to defend the rights and needs of workers everywhere.

May those of us who are now retired always remember that we still make a valuable contribution to our Church and our world by our prayers and deeds of charity.

May our working and our resting all give praise to you until the day we share together in eternal rest with all our departed in your Kingdom as you live and reign Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Pray for our Sick

Please contact the office at 910-675-2336 to have a loved one placed on our prayer list.

St. Stanislaus has a Ministry of Visitation and Prayer. This is a team of parishioners who can visit the sick and some can also bring Holy Communion to them.

If you know of someone who is need of a visit please call Julie Russell at 703-581-5875 or Ann Wells at 910-376-0500.

If you have placed a loved one on our list, and you feel they no longer need to be on it, please call so that we may update our list.

Twenty– Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

As we look at today's Gospel message, let us relate it to the OCIA program. As Catholics, we have an obligation to spread the good news of Jesus Christ and as St. James states in today's second reading, we are to "Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls. Be doers of the word and not hearers only..." We are to be a people of strong faith following all of God's commandments in order to be good examples to those who are seeking God in their lives. We are called to die to ourselves...to give up our evil inclinations and become the saints that God wills us to be. It is through His Church that God gives us the means to achieve this.

First Saturday Devotion

Our 1st Saturday Rosary Devotion will be next Saturday, September 7th at 3:00pm. Our Blessed Mother Mary has requested this devotion and we are promised the rewards of a Happy Death if we follow her directions. In addition, we are encouraged to 'Pray the Rosary daily' for world peace. Please join us for this wonderful devotion.
