MEDITATION FOR TODAY

To give hearing and speech back to the deaf and mute man restores his ability to enter fully into human communication: to hear the voice of a friend and to express himself with ease. But his many years of suffering led to an incomparable privilege: the first voice he hears is Christ's, the first person he speaks to is Jesus. "Here is your God," O once deaf and mute man, "he comes with divine recompense, he comes to save you." If we "adhere to the faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ," we will be healed of every infirmity and be "heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him."

A Prayer for Grandparents Day

Bless all Grandparents and keep them in Your care. Bless them with peace, health and healing. Reward them for their Faith and fidelity, for their work and goodness, for their love and thoughtfulness, for their gifts and prayers. Give them a long and happy life together. May old age come to them in the company of family and friends. And when life is over, unite them again, where parting will be no more, in the Kingdom of Your love.

Pray for our Sick

Please contact the office at 910-675-2336 to have a loved one placed on our prayer list.

St. Stanislaus has a Ministry of Visitation and Prayer. This is a team of parishioners who can visit the sick and some can also bring Holy Communion to them.

If you know of someone who is need of a visit please call Julie Russell at 703-581-5875 or Ann Wells at 910-376-0500.

If you have placed a loved one on our list, and you feel they no longer need to be on it, please call so that we may update our list.

Evangelization

September 8, 2024

Twenty– Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Say to those whose hearts are frightened: Be strong, fear not! Here is your God...he comes to save you.”--Isaiah 35:4. God does not want us to live lives closed to the possibilities of the gifts with which He has blessed us. Through Baptism and rebirth in Christ, “Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?”-James 2:5. To really ‘hear’ God, we have to truly open our ears, our minds, our hearts and our lives to everything that goes on around us.
