READINGS FOR TODAY

First Reading — Dn 7:13-14

Second Reading — Rev 1:5-8

Gospel — Jn 18:33b-37

MEDITATION FOR TODAY

“Jesus of Nazareth is so intrinsically king that the title ‘King’ has actually become his name. By calling ourselves Christians, we label ourselves as followers of the king.... God did not intend Israel to have a kingdom. The kingdom was a result of Israel’s rebellion against God. The law was to be Israel’s king, and, through the law, God himself. God yielded to Israel’s obstinacy and so devised a new kind of kingship for them. The king is Jesus; in him God entered humanity and espoused it to himself. This is the usual form of the divine activity in relation to mankind.... [God] has many different ways of finding man and even of turning his wrong ways into right ways. The feast of Christ the King is therefore not a feast of those who are subjugated, but a feast of those who know that they are in the hands of the one who writes straight on crooked lines” (Pope Benedict XVI).

Our Mission Statement

In recognition of God’s love and presence in every human being, the members of Saint Stanislaus Parish embrace the challenge to serve God and all His people. In fellowship with one another, we nurture our Catholic Faith through the celebration of the sacraments and reflection on the word of God. As a welcoming and culturally diverse Faith Community, we strive to proclaim and live the good News of Jesus Christ while providing for the spiritual and physical needs of those less fortunate.

Evangelization

November 24, 2024

Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

On this last Sunday of the liturgical year, we always celebrate Our Lord Jesus Christ—King of the Universe. His primary concern was to announce the coming of the Kingdom of God. He is the man-God sent to us for our salvation. In John 18: 36, he admits to Pilate, “My kingdom does not belong to this world.” Most nations today are no longer governed by monarchs. For Christians, however, Jesus Christ is still unquestionably the King of the Universe, who by his cross and resurrection has redeemed the world. He has dominion over all things, both in heaven and on earth, and his sovereignty will last forever.

We are thankful for your generosity in pledges received so far. As of Tuesday, November 19th we have 141 financial pledges amounting to $591,000. With those financial pledges our loan reduces to around $260,000. Your continuing generosity will enable us to reduce the loan amount further and help us on our journey toward Building our Faith, Family and Future at Saint Stanislaus.
