MEDITATION FOR TODAY

A good tree does not bear rotten fruit.” Because “every disciple will be like his teacher,” our union with Jesus is what makes us good trees—we have his “store of goodness” within our hearts. On any given day, the good fruit that “shows the care we have had” might simply be our soul’s humble, incessant attachment to Jesus’ mercy. We need never give in to discouragement because of our weaknesses; if we turn to Jesus, “labor is not in vain.” His perfect, sinless vision means he can remove the beams from our eyes with unflinching precision, “clothing us with immortality.”

Our Mission Statement

In recognition of God’s love and presence in every human being, the members of Saint Stanislaus Parish embrace the challenge to serve God and all His people. In fellowship with one another, we nurture our Catholic Faith through the celebration of the sacraments and reflection on the word of God. As a welcoming and culturally diverse Faith Community, we strive to proclaim and live the good News of Jesus Christ while providing for the spiritual and physical needs of those less fortunate.

Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Words...how they are used can make a big impact on the ones who hear them. Today's readings remind me of the old adage...be careful what you say. Words can make or break a politician. They can make or break friendships. They can be the seed planted or the foul untruthful blades that cut down. They can be the message that heals us or the venom that kills. We can detect the hate that is in them or the love that is trying to break through. "From the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks"- Luke 6:45. Words show the difference between a good person or an evil person. Of which person do your words speak?
