MEDITATION FOR TODAY

“Mercy is heartfelt sympathy for another’s distress, impelling us to succor him if we can. For mercy takes its name—misericordia—from denoting a person’s compassionate heart for another’s unhappiness” (Saint Thomas Aquinas). Divine mercy is God’s refusal to leave us in our fallen condition: Jesus enters the “locked doors” of our hearts, banishing fear and sin and saying, “Peace be with you.” “He showed them his hands and his side”: Jesus shows us his wounds so that we will not be afraid to show him ours. Finally, Jesus gave the disciples the Holy Spirit so they could be his agents of mercy in the sacrament of penance: “Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them.” Thousands of years later, we continue to receive Christ’s mercy in confession.

Our Mission Statement

In recognition of God’s love and presence in every human being, the members of Saint Stanislaus Parish embrace the challenge to serve God and all His people. In fellowship with one another, we nurture our Catholic Faith through the celebration of the sacraments and reflection on the word of God. As a welcoming and culturally diverse Faith Community, we strive to proclaim and live the good News of Jesus Christ while providing for the spiritual and physical needs of those less fortunate.

Evangelization

April 27, 2025

Second Sunday of Easter

Divine Mercy Sunday

There are many in today's world who lack faith. In today's Gospel of 'doubting' Thomas, we need to pay attention to the last line written by John—"But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name"- John 20:31. This is the reason for the whole Bible being written. Our whole life depends on those words of John. Belief in Jesus means faith, and faith means trust, and trust means love, and love means life and joy. It's so simple that a child can understand it! Do you have faith?
